2. - PROGRAMMING

3. - THE WAY TO GET THE ANSWERS

Benefits obtained by means of:

The BSTPortal.com offers:

A simplified and user-friendly computer system applied to the internet.

A Web Service Portal, the International Link, for the exclusive use of wholesale distributors and factory representatives, to carry out online commercial transactions through the centralized and automated contact software tools with similar organizations in the global marketplace.

The interactive host and data management infrastructure used to carry out communications, sales and purchase operations with the affiliate network.

A means of inter-company contact through specially designed programs so that international companies can develop new commercial alternatives in the world market.

The software to eliminate boundaries and distances between territories: the websites by which inventories, offers, special promotions, and auctions from wholesale companies linked up to the system, can be consulted, and the results displayed by means of a dynamic, concise, computerized, and user-friendly software available to all affiliates: in short, a means of globalization.

A business solution that promotes sales among affiliates independently from them having to be present, a process completed through computerized software.

THE MASTER KEY to associate the international market of specialized wholesalers with each other, 24 hours and day, 7 days a week and 365 days a year.
